IT WAS A NIGHT OF CELEBRATION UNDERSCORED BY A SPIRIT OF SERVICE AS THE ROTARY CLUB OF SINGAPORE WELCOMED ITS NEW SLATE OF LEADERS

INSTALLATION OF 78TH ROTARY CLUB PRESIDENT AND BOARD 30.05.2012

VENUE Joyden Hall, Bugis

FLASHBACK

Looking back on the club's 82-year history, president Jimmy Ooi shared how Singapore's gung-ho Rotarians continued to meet regularly during the second World War, right up till the kempetai (Japanese military police) descended on them.

THE ROTARY CLUB OF SINGAPORE KICKED OFF ITS NEW YEAR WITH the inauguration of its 78th president and board with its annual gala dinner, which was graced by guest of honour, deputy prime minister TEO CHEE HEAN. Also in attendance were Singapore's high commissioner to Nigeria SHABIR HASSANBHAI, foreign dignitaries, and Rotarians from Malaysia, the Philippines, Thailand and India.

In his maiden speech as newly minted president, JIMMY OOI saluted the Rotary Club's "quiet men" who had dedicated their lives, without fanfare, to helping society and whose legacies continue to motivate and inspire fellow Rotarians.

Providing the smooth grooves that evening were YWENNA CAROLLIN and resident crooner ROB COLLINS of Stellar at 1-Airitude, who each performed a jazz set. Young singer-songwriter AMBROSE BAJWA and a capella group Pentamorous capped the night's entertainment.
